Welcome to the July edition of The Scoop @ Robbins Schwartz!

July has been a month of welcoming new faces, enjoying time together outside the office, and celebrating the people who make Robbins Schwartz such a special place to work. From our annual summer outing to recognizing employee milestones and kicking off Race Judicata training, we're excited to share some of this month's highlights.

Whether you're part of the Robbins Schwartz team or following along from afar, thank you for being part of our community!

Welcome to the Team

We're thrilled to introduce one new addition joining us this month.

Jordan Radford

Associate Attorney

Jordan joins our Student & Special Education Practice Group as an Associate Attorney, bringing valuable experience in education law from the Chicago Board of Education. We're excited to have Jordan on the team and look forward to the knowledge and perspective she will bring to our clients and firm. --- Welcome aboard, Jordan!

— Annual Summer Outing —

Cruising Chicago's Skyline

This month, Robbins Schwartz took to the water for our annual summer outing aboard the Chicago Elite!

It was a wonderful afternoon filled with beautiful views of the Chicago skyline, great food, and plenty of opportunities to relax and connect with colleagues outside the office. Thank you to everyone who joined us and helped make this year's outing such a memorable event!

Welcome, Summer Intern Will Hayden!

We're thrilled to introduce one new addition joining us for the Summer

Will Hayden Summer Intern

We're excited to welcome Will Hayden to Robbins Schwartz as our summer intern! Will has been supporting our Marketing Department and contributing to several ongoing projects and initiatives. We appreciate his enthusiasm and hard work and are thrilled to have him with us this summer. --- Welcome to the team, Will!

Our Firm Community

Run & Stroll Is Underway

Our Run & Stroll program is officially in motion!

Employees have been coming together to walk, run, and train in preparation for Race Judicata. Whether participants are aiming for a personal best or simply enjoying time outdoors with colleagues, the program has been a great way to stay active, build connections, and support one another along the way.

We look forward to cheering everyone on at Race Judicata!

Cheers to Our July Milestone Honorees!

Congratulations to our July milestone honorees!
